The Board of Health planned to work on the FY2008 budget but was unable to do so as several town residents attended the meeting reacting to the rumor that the BOH is planning on firing the Town Nurse Practitioner. The Board assured the audience that they had no intention of firing the nurse and did not know how the rumor started. The Board had only asked the nurse, Ruth Loomis, to keep certain records so that the BOH could evaluate the program, plan for future needs and defend the cost of health services at the May 2008 annual town meeting.

Next Meeting: The next meeting was not announced.
