Old Business

1. Accounting: Chair Wilson announced that Franklin Regional Council of Governments (FRCOG) had agreed to let Rowe leave the FRCOG Accounting Program at the end of the third quarter of Fiscal Year 2015, that is at the end of March 2015. Bob Dean, head of the FRCOG Accounting Program, will write an amendment to the agreement stating that Rowe will not owe the last quarter charges.

Tracy Baronas was hired to be Rowe's Town Accountant. She will begin on April 1, 2015. A new computer is being purchased to upgrade the old computer which the accountant had been using. Chair Wilson wrote a new hire letter to reflect the earlier start date; this was accepted by Vice-Chair Gleason and will be sent out to Ms. Baronas.

2. Fiscal Year 2016 Budget: Work continued on the FY16 budget. There is a large shortfall and department heads have been asked to find reductions in their requests.

New Business

1. Real Estate Tax Refunds: Two real estate tax refunds were presented by the Tax collector for approval and signature.

Motion to Approve Refunds: Chair Wilson moved to sign the refunds; Vice-Chair Gleason seconded the motion; and the motion was carried (2-0.)

2. Selectmen's Override: Chair Wilson discussed the Selectmen's override of $182,760.00 for the Capital Stabilization Fund.
