Minutes of Rowe Finance Committee Meeting
February 8, 2017

Joint meeting with the Board of Selectmen.

Present: Ray Wilson, Chair; Loretta Dionne, Wayne Zavotka and Mitchell Soviecke

Call to Order: 4:00 p.m.

Selectmen present: Walt Quist and Dennis May. Executive Secretary Janice Boudreau.

Budget Hearing: Department of Public Works
DPW Superintendent Lance Larned presented the DPW budget (see attached) There was discussion concerning upcoming projects for the DPW, including road, bridge repairs and dam inspections, with possible repairs. Walt suggested that a five year dam inspection fund be set up as this inspection needs to be done on a regular basis. Mitch requested that great care be taken to protect fish and wildlife in Pelham Lake if a draw down was necessary.
Budget Hearing: Police Department
Police Chief Julie Shippee presented the Police Department budget (see attached) There was discussion concerning the possible need for a new police department computer. It was recommended that an additional $500 be budgeted for Old Home Days police coverage, if necessary. Chief Shippee presented a proposal for a new police cruiser. After much discussion it was decided that a time-line be set up for the cruisers replacement.

Budget Hearing: Board of Health
David Cousineau, Chair; Maggie Rice and clerk Joanne Samanie presented the BOH budget (see attached). David reported that water samples were being taken to determine the future of the landfill. There was discussion about Rowe's poor recycling rate and how to make it better.

Adjourned: 6:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Mitchell Soviecke
