September 13, 2007, 9:04 a.m.
Present: Chairman David Roberson, Ann Foshay, Joann Brown and Ellynn Packard
Audience: Cindy Lafond

The meeting was called to order with a full committee in attendance for the interviews of the candidates for editor of the "Goal Post". Rebecca Bradley was interviewed first and questioned regarding her experience and general qualifications. She expressed some reservations about the position, and also her interest in the advantages of working from home. She brought with her samples of her writing.

The second person to be interviewed was Cherrie Smart, who also brought samples of her work. She said that she had previously formatted the by-laws and done the town report for the town of Northfield.

When the interviews were completed, the Board unanimously voted to offer the position of editor to Rebecca Bradley. There was discussion of offering the job of reformatting the by-laws to Cherrie Smart. Ms. Packard was delegated to inform Ms. Smart of the Board's decision and to ask for copies of the Northfield By-laws and Town Report.

This was followed by discussion of the role of the Planning Board regarding recreational facilities in town. The next meeting was set for the following Thursday at 10 a.m. The meeting was adjourned at 10:35.

Respectfully submitted,
Ellynn Packard
